Fourth Sunday of Lent, Year "B" –
"For God so Loved the World ..."

There were two main exiles in the life of the Jewish people, which are exile in Egypt and exile in Babylon. Of these two exiles, the exile in Babylon was the most painful and disgraceful. We could recall that the children of Jacob's envy of their brother Joseph and the subsequent famine that followed led to the exile of the Israelites in Egypt. Life in Egypt was good until a Pharaoh who did not know Joseph came to power. After their liberation from the hands of Pharaoh and before their entry into the Promised Land, the Israelites promised to serve the Lord by remaining faithful to the Covenant. However, not long after they began to enjoy the fruit of the land did they begin to forget the Lord their God by abandoning the ways of justice and the appropriate lifestyle befitting of a chosen people.

This is clearly recorded in the Book of Chronicles (First Reading), "In those days, all the princes of Judah, the priests and the people added infidelity to infidelity, practicing all the abominations of the nations and polluting the Lord's temple which He had consecrated in Jerusalem."

These Israelites neither listened to the voice of God nor to the message of the prophets inviting them to change from their evil ways and return to the Lord. It is not just that the people were unfaithful, but also the priests and the government. Their infidelity to the covenant resulted in the second exile in Babylon.

The naked reality of having fallen from grace and the consequences of their actions dawned on them. This is clearly captured in the responsorial Psalm 137 of today. "By the rivers of Babylon, there we sat and wept, remembering Sion

In the life experiences of the Israelites we see the inevitable consequences of infidelity. Be it infidelity to the covenant, law, marriage, vows, etc; it ultimately leads to slavery (loss of genuine freedom).

The central message of this reading is not to condemn the Israelites but to highlight the rich depth of God's love. – It was because of their sins that God allowed them to be exiled in Babylon but the merciful hand of God is seen in their homecoming.

God used Cyrus, the pagan king of Persia to free the Israelites from bondage in Babylon so that they could return to the Promised Land where they will be free to give fitting worship and praise to God. Hence God's promises were not nullified by the sins of His people. God remained faithful despite the infidelity of His chosen people.

Paul, in the Second Reading hammers this point home when he said "God might show the innumerable riches of His grace in His kindness to us in Jesus Christ. For by grace you have been saved through faith and this is not from you, it is the gift of God; it is not from works, so no one may boast." It is God's doing and it is marvelous in our eyes.

The beloved apostle John further re-echoes this sentiment in this beautiful passage which could be said to be the best summary of the Gospels – "For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten son ..." Jn.3:16.

John reminds us that our relationship with God is governed by love. God rules the world with love not with power and He wants our relationship with one another to be deeply rooted in faith and governed by love.

But unfortunately, love has become one of the most misused and misunderstood words/concepts in the world today. The Greek had 3 words for love namely;

Eros: romantic love between a man and a woman.

Philia: brotherly and fellowship love due to interests e.g. in sports, cars, movies, celebrities, colleagues, pets, etc.

Agape: Sacrificial love – like a mother's love for her unborn baby such that she could risk her life to save the life of her unborn baby.

God's love for us is agape or sacrificial love. It is a unique kind of love because it is God who took the initiative to love us and to save us. Sacrifice becomes an essential part of true love in the world.

So, in the second reading St. Paul reminds us that we did not do anything special to merit God's sacrificial love. It is not based on our good works but on faith or active response to this unique initiative of God to love us. Faith becomes our best response to God's love.

God is love and s/he who abides in love abides in God. Agape love is the love God has for us and it is the same kind of love He wishes that we have for one another. Heaven is where love reigns and hell is where selfishness reigns.

God's love is all-inclusive. It is not directed at one nation alone, nor is it only for those who are good. It is for all – like the sun, rain... for both the good and bad alike.

Today's gospel message also talks about judgment and condemnation. One may ask, if God's approach is by way of love, how does it include judgment and condemnation? How can we reconcile judgment and condemnation with love?

Condemnation here does not follow from God's action but from peoples' choices. God condemns no one. People condemn themselves by the choices they make. God sent us the light (Jesus). If people get lost, it is not due to an absence of the light but because they refuse to accept the light. The fault is ours not God's.

God is love. Love is at its best when the beloved lives in freedom. Our love of God obliges us not to call darkness light. When we do that we get trapped by it. But when we call it darkness, we learn to live so that darkness does not overcome us. Whenever everything is permissible we have failed to distinguish between light and dark, hence the fate of the Israelites – slavery, await us. But even now, God's love is still there for us inviting us to die to sin so as to rise with Jesus on Easter Sunday.

Would Like To Hear From You!

We are planning a "Town Hall" Meeting this coming April to hear what your thoughts are regarding our parish community strengths and weaknesses.

We also want to hear your ideas on how we can improve our church grounds and buildings.

The Los Angeles Archdiocese is kicking off a Capital Campaign that will collaborate with the parishes to address whatever improvement plans are proposed.

A Suggestion Box will be placed in the church vestibule leading up to the April meeting where you can drop off your ideas anytime. These proposals will be discussed in the April "Town Hall" meeting.

All Souls Church is a vibrant and diverse community. Let us come together on this remarkable opportunity to make a difference for ourselves and future generations.

Did You Know?

Our natural inclination is to discuss concerns and problems with the people in our lives, but it can be easy for these discussions to slip into gossip. When gossip gets out of hand, it can damage reputations and create division and fear, without any discussion of how to resolve the problem. Teaching your children to avoid gossip and focus on truth starts at home—as always, parents lead by example. Try not to gossip about rumors or other people, and teach your children to seek solutions when there is a problem rather than just talking about it. RESPONSABILIDAD COMUNAL

El pueblo de Dios olvidó la alianza y se burló de las leyes de Dios. No escucharon a los profetas que había entre ellos, los cuales les advertían en nombre de Dios. Los profetas son enviados por Dios para recordarnos por qué estamos aquí, pero muchas veces, incluso en nuestra época, nos burlamos de ellos, los despreciamos y los maltratamos, en vez de escucharlos y agradecerles.

El libro de las Crónicas nos cuenta los resultados de estos pecados: la destrucción del Templo y de toda Jerusalén, asesinatos, caos y por último el exilio a una tierra desconocida. ¿Por qué hallamos estos relatos en la Biblia? ¿Están ahí sólo para informarnos lo que les sucedió a nuestros antepasados? ¿Qué bien nos puede traer eso a menos que también haya un mensaje y una advertencia para nosotros? Somos personas que respetan las enseñanzas de Dios, que obedecen las palabras de Cristo en la segunda alianza en su sangre? ¿O continuamos sembrando obras de maldad y violencia? Estas lecturas nos recuerdan que seremos juzgados como pueblo, no sólo como individuos.

¿Sabía Usted?

Nuestra inclinación natural es discutir las preocupaciones y los problemas con las personas en nuestra vida, pero puede ser fácil que estas discusiones se conviertan en chismes. Cuando los chismes se salen de la mano, pueden dañar reputaciones y crear división y miedo, sin ninguna discusión de cómo resolver el problema. Enseñar a sus hijos a evitar chismes y centrarse en la verdad comienza en casa, y como siempre, los padres lideran con el ejemplo. Trate de no chismear sobre rumores u otras personas, y enseñe a sus hijos a buscar soluciones cuando existe un problema en lugar de simplemente hablar de ello.
