A Prayer for Healing

Holy Spirit, comforter of hearts, heal your people's wounds and transform brokenness into wholeness.

Grant us the courage and wisdom, humility and grace, to act with justice.

Breathe wisdom into our prayers and labors.

Grant that all harmed by abuse may find peace and justice.

We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Una Oración de Sanación

Espíritu Santo, consolador de corazones, cura las heridas de tus hijos e hijas y devuelve la integridad a lo que ha sido quebrantado.

Concédenos el valor y la sabiduría, la humildad y la gracia, para actuar con justicia.

Sopla tu sabiduría para actuar con justicia.

Que todos los que han sido heridos por el abuso encuentren paz y justicia.

Te lo pedimos por Cristo, nuestro Señor. Amén.

4th Sunday of Easter, Year "B"
Jesus Christ, the Good Shepherd

The two Holy Pictures that influenced my spiritual life as a child are the pictures of Jesus the Good Shepherd and the Guardian Angel. These two holy pictures go a long way to inform and shape my understanding of Jesus and the blessed assurance we have in being anchored to Jesus as our shepherd and our guide. In these holy pictures I see the gentle touch of a loving, caring and compassionate Jesus healing and protecting those who trust in Him and the unimaginable great transformation that takes place in people who are in a trustworthy and reliable relationship.

Relationship is power. Relationship is happiness. Relationship is life and a healthy relationship has a powerful healing effect. There is no limit to the good that people can do when they are convinced that someone reliable and trustworthy cares about them. This awareness of an intimate relationship reaches its climax with the realization that we are the children of a God who loves and cares for us.

There is no shortage of historical facts that reveal how much God loves us (Jn 3:16). After looking at the cross, we may not have any genuine reason to doubt God's love for us. The fundamental question to ask today is "How deep is my relationship with God?"

It is due to the strong relationship that exists between Jesus and His apostles that Peter, even in the absence of Jesus was bold enough to defend the true faith in the risen and glorified Jesus, not minding the cruelty and threats of the Jews and their religious authorities.

It is due to a strong relationship with God that the beloved apostle John was able to state categorically and without the fear of persecution that we are children of God.

It is due to the strong relationship with God that Jesus not minding our sinful nature accepted to die on the cross to prove that He is the good shepherd who lays down his life for His sheep.

Jesus, thus, lays an immortal foundation for us to emulate - Becoming a good shepherd should be the greatest ambition of every child of God. It is not a task reserved for priests and religious. Husband and wife become good shepherds by stopping at nothing in demonstrating their love and devotion for each other; parents, by making countless sacrifices for the good of their children; teachers, by being deeply concerned for the well-being of their students, especially the weak ones among them; doctors and nurses, by exercising care and compassion in their treatment of their patients; parishioners, who generously support their parish community by donating their time, wealth and talent for the good of others.

Becoming a good shepherd to others demands that we develop a good relationship with God. Poor relationship with God expresses itself in a poor relationship with self, family and society, while a good relationship with God helps us to build our self-esteem, making us to become happy with self and others. It takes strength and character to be in a lasting good relationship.

We do not come about it by mere stroke of chance. It is born out of strong character and utter determination to do the will of God.

On this 'Good Shepherd Sunday' otherwise known as VOCATION SUNDAY or World Day of Prayer for Vocations, the Mother Church reminds us that no matter our status in this world, life on earth is a vocation. We are all called to a mission. And the ultimate vocation to which we are called, like that of Jesus the Good Shepherd is the vocation to LOVE and to lay down our lives for the good of others.

There are two different ways we can respond to this call, either with

- The mentality of the good shepherd, or
The mentality of the hireling (paid laborer).

Whichever way we decide to go about it, life is all about caring or not caring. Caring for others is a conscious and deliberate decision. The hireling neither knows nor cares about the sheep. The good shepherd knows His sheep and cares about them to the point of giving His life to defend them from the Enemy. Caring may be costly and risky, yet, people who care are always blessed.

Our readings especially the Gospel warns us about the danger of going through life with the mentality of the hireling – an uncommitted lifestyle. We do this whenever we live a lukewarm lifestyle that makes a chosen child to become a frozen child. In the frozen state of mind we find it much easier to blame others and to complain in spite of all the blessings that abound.

Some years ago an American journalist named Studs Terkel did a survey to find out how people felt about their work. He discovered that the overwhelming majority of people are unhappy with their work. Think about this for a while..... are you happy with your life, family, friends, work etc.? We may not always be blessed with a dream job, yet, people who go through life with the mentality of a hireling (paid laborer) never find job satisfaction in life, making work to become a mere labor that dehumanizes rather than humanize creation.

The busyness of life and family responsibilities may make it difficult for all to serve in the ministerial priesthood but we do have a moral obligation to pray for vocations, and as children of God we are called to follow the footsteps of Jesus the Good Shepherd. Teachers, politicians, police, nurses, doctors, parents, etc. do difficult works but if they do them with love it becomes a vocation that humanizes us and makes the world a better place for all.

The world may not be a perfect place, yet, Jesus demands perfection from us. Perfection here is more about doing our best in everything we do. It is more about living our life with passion for justice, truth and beauty. Being a good shepherd may not be an easy task, yet, all it takes is to do small things with great love.

People, who do small things with great love, are a treasure to cherish and behold. They know who they are – they are the children of God. And knowing who they are is only possible through the grace that comes from a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ – the Good Shepherd.

THE LEGION OF MARY 88 years of Evangelization

Touched by the Holy Spirit, the Legion of Mary, a lay parish-based organization, has a plan of action to share the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the truths of our Catholic faith.

We are called to welcome with love and caring those who have stopped practicing their faith; to invite those who have no church family; and to share our faith with other Christians within the parish community. With Mary's example and prayer, we grow as disciples ever faithful to Jesus and ever wanting to reveal Him.

Mary, Mother of the Church

Pope Francis has made the devotion to the Virgin Mary a new fixed celebration in the Roman Catholic calendar. The Vatican published a decree in which Francis declared that the Mary "Mother of the Church" feast would be celebrated on the Monday following Pentecost. This year, it falls on May 21. The decree said Francis wanted the devotion to "encourage the growth of the maternal sense of the Church in the pastors, religious and faithful, as well as a growth of genuine Marian piety."

Town Hall Meeting/Survey

We are planning a “Town Hall” Meeting this coming June, and we want to hear what your thoughts are regarding our parish community strengths and weaknesses. We also want to hear your ideas on how we can improve our church grounds and buildings.

The Los Angeles Archdiocese is kicking off a Capital Campaign that will collaborate with the parishes to address whatever improvement plans are proposed.

A Suggestion Box is now placed in the church vestibule and will remain there leading up to the June meeting where you can drop off your ideas anytime. These proposals will be discussed in the June “Town Hall” meeting.

All Souls Church is a vibrant and diverse community. Let us come together on this remarkable opportunity to make a difference for ourselves and future generations.

SALVADOS POR AQUEL QUE FUE RECHAZADO

Algunos adolescentes de la ciudad suelen menospreciar y rechazar a los chicos del campo. Sin embargo, no sería una exageración decir que la humanidad les debe la vida a los agricultores que cuidan los cultivos y el ganado por todo el mundo. La Sagrada Escritura para esta semana nos recuerda que Jesús fue rechazado como pastor, como chico del campo, sin embargo, a él le debemos la vida.

En la lectura de los Hechos de los Apóstoles de este domingo, Pedro les dice a las personas que la salvación viene por Jesucristo, que fue rechazado y crucificado. En la carta del apóstol san Juan escuchamos que nos hemos convertido en los hijos amados de Dios por Jesús, a quien el mundo no conoció. Por último, en el Evangelio Jesús se describe como el buen Pastor: "yo doy la vida por las ovejas" (Juan 10:11). ¿Te unirás a Jesús para dar tu vida por el rebaño amado de Dios?

¿Sabía Usted?

Durante el mes de la Prevención Nacional del Abuso de Niños, la Arquidiócesis quiere reiterar que sigue comprometida a ayudar a los sobrevivientes y a sus familias a sanar y encontrar la paz. Si usted o alguien que usted conoce, es una víctima de abuso sexual por un empleado de la Iglesia o un voluntario, comuníquese para ayuda y apoyo con la Coordinadora de Asistencia a las Víctimas, de la Arquidiócesis, al (213) 637-7650 o www.archla.org/vam.

NECESITAMOS DE SU OPINION

Estamos planeando una reunión de "Ayuntamiento" en junio, queremos escuchar sus opiniones sobre las fortalezas y debilidades de nuestra comunidad parroquial.

También queremos escuchar sus ideas sobre cómo podemos mejorar los terrenos y edificios de nuestra iglesia.

La Arquidiócesis de Los Ángeles está iniciando una Campaña de Capital que colaborará con las parroquias para abordar cualquier plan de mejora que se proponga.

Ahora se coloca un buzón de sugerencias en el vestíbulo de la iglesia y permanecerá allí hasta la reunión de junio, en la que puede dejar sus ideas en cualquier momento. Estas propuestas serán discutidas en la reunión del "Ayuntamiento" de junio.

All Souls Church es una comunidad vibrante y diversa. Vamos a unirnos en esta notable oportunidad de hacer una diferencia para nosotros y las generaciones futuras.
