EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS

STORAGE TIPS

1. Store NOTHING on cement floors. Place slats of lumber between cement and the storage area to prevent sweating and rusting.
2. Store supplies in various locations in the house; if one part is damaged, you still have something left.
3. ALWAYS obtain top grade food products for storage.
4. Approximately 2 percent of food value is lost each year in canned foods stored under ideal conditions.
5. Buy nitrogen-packed food when possible. It has longer storage life, better quality and no insect infestation.
6. Heavy wire or a small piece of lumber should be attached to the front of storage shelves to keep contents from falling in the event of an earthquake.
7. Use clear plastic bags for food storage; colored plastic bags have been chemically treated and SHOULD NOT be used to store food.
8. Food, unlike water, may be rationed safely, except for children and pregnant women.

Pascal Tremblay, 2010

10th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year "B"
"For whoever does the will of God"

It was after reading about the temptation and fall of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden, that I remembered the story of a Toad who baked some cookies. "These cookies smell very good," said Toad. He ate one. "And they taste even better," he said. Toad ran to Frog's house. "Frog, Frog," cried Toad, "taste these cookies that I have made."

Frog ate one of the cookies, "These are the best cookies I have ever eaten!" said Frog.

Frog and Toad ate many cookies, one after another. "You know, Toad," said Frog, with his mouth full, "I think we should stop eating. We will soon be sick."

"You are right," said Toad. "Let us eat one last cookie, and then we will stop." Frog and Toad ate one last cookie. There were many cookies left in the bowl.

"Frog," said Toad, "let us eat one very last cookie, and then, we will stop."

Frog and Toad ate one very last cookie.

"We must stop eating!" cried Toad as he ate another.

"Yes," said Frog, reaching for a cookie, "we need willpower."

"What is willpower?" asked Toad.

"Willpower is trying hard not to do something you really want to do," said Frog.

"You mean like trying hard not to eat all these cookies?" asked Toad.

"Right," said Frog.

Frog put the cookies in a box. "There," he said. "Now we will not eat any more cookies."

"But we can open the box," said Toad.

"That is true," said Frog (Ray & Ann Otlung, "Renewal" Navpress, 1989, p.73-74).

Temptation is real. No one likes to be tempted. Neither in the quest for more knowledge as in Adam and Eve, nor in the desire for food as in that of Jesus, is temptation fun. However, temptation remains an integral part of human experience in the world and no one is immune to it. The truth of the fact is that temptations are not always there to destroy us. The experience of Jesus in the desert teaches us that temptation, though always challenging, is not above our capacity to defeat. Our ability to overcome temptation could bring us to the next level of self realization. Hence, it is the way we respond to temptation that defines the moral content of our character and the depth of our faith.

The story of the temptation of Adam and Eve, however, is a lesson on personal responsibility. What surprises me the most in this story is the inability of our first parents to answer a simple question. After eating the fruit of the forbidden tree, God asks Adam, have you eaten the fruit of the tree that I asked you not to eat? To such a question, a simple Yes or No answer would suffice but instead of doing just that, Adam and Eve resorted to self defense. Adam blamed Eve, and Eve blamed the serpent. None of them was able to stand strong to accept responsibility for their mistake. The consequence of this disobedience which is referred to as the original sin continues to manifest itself in the actions of human beings in their failure to accept responsibility for their actions.

We are prone to blaming others for the sins and inadequacies in our lives. Growth comes when we are courageous enough to say mea culpa for our sins. It is the proper admission of our sins that opens the human heart up to the grace of God which leads to true repentance and liberation.

Sin complicates human life and makes simple things to appear complex. In sin, human beings lose a good sense of judgment and are prone to self defense. How to restore a fallen humanity to the grace and goodness of God remains a daunting task for anyone in any generation, time or place who is desirous of peace, justice and love.

This is the truth that informs the reply of Jesus to those who after listening to His teaching and seeing the works of his hands, said "Your mother and your brothers and your sisters are outside asking for you." Jesus said in reply, "Who are my mother, and my brothers?" And looking around Jesus proclaimed, "Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother."

With this reply, Jesus establishes a new parameter for becoming a member of the commonwealth of Israel – Faith. A faithful person is a person who does the will of God at all times. Faith is a gift from God that cannot be bought with money. Faith comes from accepting as true, the word of God and putting it into practice.

It goes to mean that Mary's (the first daughter of Israel) greatness is not derived from being a descendant of the family of Abraham, Jacob and Jacob. Mary's greatness comes from her faith in God that the word spoken to her by the angel shall come to pass. Like Abraham, Mary believed and it was credited to her as faith.

Ours is a world that gives us reason to doubt. Failed promises, unfulfilled dreams, rejections, disappointments and broken hearts give us good reasons to doubt. Mary saw it all, yet, believed that God's promises shall come to pass in her life.

What the old covenant Eve could not do in the Garden of Eden, the new covenant Eve – Mary is able to do for us in the new covenant. Hence in Mary, God begins a new creation not formed by blood relationship but by faith in the word of God.

In China's later Han era, Konosuke Matsushita in "Velvet Glove, Iron First" tells the story of a politician called Yang Zhen, a man known for his upright character. After Yang Zhen was made a provincial governor, one of his earlier patrons, Wang Mi, paid him an unexpected visit. As they talked over old times, Wang Mi brought out a large gold cup and presented it to Yang Zhen. Yang Zhen refused to accept it, but Wang Mi persisted, saying, "There is no one here tonight but you and me, so no one will know."

"You say that no one will know," Yang Zhen replied, "but that is not true. Heaven will know, and you and I will know too."

Wang Mi was ashamed, and backed down. Subsequently Yang Zhen's integrity won increasing recognition, and he rose to a high post in the central government.

Human nature is weak, no doubt about that. We tend to yield to temptation especially when we think nobody can see us. In fact if there is no consequence for stealing, many people would not hesitate to steal. "This is not to say that when we do something bad, we feel no compunction at all, just that man is weak and prone to yield to temptation. But even if nobody witnesses our sins, and not a soul knows of them, we cannot hide the truth from the eyes of our conscience. In the end, what is important is not that other people know, but that we ourselves know. When Yang Zhen told Wang Mi that "Heaven will know," he meant that the gods would know what he had done: in other words, his own conscience (June 25, 1992)."

In Mary, we see a new creation formed and informed by grace, hence our cause for rejoicing.

MASS IN RECOGNITION OF ALL IMMIGRANTS

Sunday, June 24, 2018
4:00 PM

Immigration has a variety of root causes. Family reunification, seeking economic stability with employment, civil unrest or war in one's homeland and climate change rendering one's ancestral lands uninhabitable all lead people to migrate. Biblical justice echoes a call to welcome the stranger, as one of the most vulnerable segments of the population.

Pre-Procession begins at 3:30pm

Town Hall Meeting/Survey

We will be having a "Town Hall" Meeting on Saturday, June 23rd, at 3 pm in the parish hall, and we want to hear what your thoughts are regarding our parish community strengths and weaknesses. We also want to hear your ideas on how we can improve our church grounds and buildings.

A Suggestion Box is now placed in the church vestibule and will remain there leading up to the June meeting where you can drop off your ideas anytime.

THANK YOU

Our Parish would like to thank the Knights of Columbus for so generously giving to the community. Not only did they provide a delicious and free breakfast for us last Sunday, but they also prepared it themselves and served it with a smile. Thank you for your kind gesture.

Did You Know?

During the summer, children may spend time at a camp or program. It is important to monitor for potential risks when a child enters a new environment. Ask to see the organizations written policies for the adults who will be supervising your child, check if there are procedures in place for emergencies and make sure there is a system for open communication between parents and organizers/leadership. Taking time to check these and other safeguards is key to building safe and nurturing experiences for children. Please stop by our Pastoral Center to pick up a form and receive more details about the various possible donations. Anniversary messages can range from a full page to a business card size.

The deadline for submissions is June 10.

Proceeds will also be used to cover expenses for the brochure, souvenirs, and homily book production. Any remainder will go to Fr. Patrick's Village Town Hall Building Project in Nigeria.

PROMESAS

La liturgia de hoy está llena de promesas. La lectura del Génesis promete un final triunfante sobre el poder del pecado y un regreso a una nueva creación. La lectura de la segunda carta a los corintios promete que todo aquel que sigue a Cristo tendrá dificultades. Sin embargo, también promete, que podemos perseverar si reconocemos que Cristo está con nosotros, renovándonos cada día, y dándonos el valor y la fuerza que necesitamos para esta perseverancia. El Evangelio promete que hacer la voluntad de Dios nos hace familia con Jesús, quien perdona todos los pecados y triunfa sobre el mal.

Hoy podría ser un buen día para que también nosotros hiciéramos algunas promesas. Podemos prometer dejar de engañarnos a nosotros mismos acerca de nuestras tendencias al egoísmo y el pecado. Podemos prometernos creer —en verdad creer— que, aunque no estamos sin pecado, somos perdonados. Podemos prometernos combatir el mal y el pecado compatriandonos como hermanos y hermanas no solamente con el Señor, sino con nuestros prójimos.

LOS 5 PILARES DE LA VIDA ESPIRITUAL

"La Iglesia y el mundo tienen una gran necesidad del culto eucarístico". -El Papa Juan Pablo II

La Adoración Eucarística es la honra a Jesús presente en la Eucaristía. Todo el que pasa tiempo en la adoración de Jesús fortalece su relación personal con él y crece en el amor y la santidad. El tiempo de silencio con el Señor también nos permite escuchar y reconocer su voz cuando habla a nuestros corazones. Nuestra capilla tiene a la Santísima Eucaristía expuesta todos los días durante los horarios de oficina.
