LORD
 You have blessed us with dreamers who arrived here as children and today seek a way to make their contribution to our common life. We pray for them now. We pray that they will be allowed to work, study and live in safety. We pray that those in authority may turn away from the demons of prejudice, fear and scarcity, that they will set their hearts on acts of mercy. We pray that you will give us vision and inspire our concrete actions as we seek to realize our goal of liberty and justice for all.

May your will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Amen.

~Prayer from Grace Cathedral

2nd Sunday of Lent, Year "B"
The Transfiguration of the Lord

It was on April 3, 1968 that one of the greatest preachers of our time - Martin Luther King, jr. while in Memphis Tennessee delivered his prophetic Mountaintop Message to the world. In this message MLK said "Well, I don't know what will happen now. We've got some difficult days ahead. But it doesn't matter with me now. Because I've been to the mountaintop. And I don't mind. Like anybody, I would like to live a long life. Longevity has its place. But I'm not concerned about that now. I just want to do God's will. And He's allowed me to go up to the mountain. And I've looked over. And I've seen the Promised Land...."

Just a few hours after this prophetic message, the assassin's bullet struck and MLK breathed his last and died. Little did we know that it will not be the end of the liberation movement for which he died. His victory is marching on

The mountain as a place of encounter with God has a very strong biblical foundation. The Ten Commandments was given to Moses on Mount Sinai and many other encounters between God and the prophets took place on such mountains like Horeb and Nebo. In his time of distress, Elijah went to the mountain hoping to hear the voice of God. Today on the Mountain we hear the story of the transfiguration – the divine encounter between Jesus and God the Father during which His glory was revealed to the world.

Last Sunday, Jesus, after fasting and praying in the desert for 40 days and 40 nights on the Mountain (The Mountain of Temptation) encountered Satan in the wilderness. On that mountain Jesus declares to the world that only God is worthy of our praise and worship.

Today Abraham is challenged to sacrifice his only son Isaac on the mountain at Moriah "There you shall offer him up as a holocaust on a height that I will point out to you." It was on that mountain that the faith of Abraham shined forth.

Again on the mountain, Jesus was transfigured. His glory was revealed to the world and the voice of the Father was heard from heaven saying "This is my beloved Son. Listen to Him."

Being surrounded by mountains here in the Valley we know how difficult the journey to the mountaintop could be. We know how dry and how quite removed from civilization is the mountaintop. It takes a lot of courage to get to the mountaintop. Though void of luxury, getting to the mountaintop could be an enriching and empowering experience.

The mountaintop experience becomes for both the followers of Martin Luther and the disciples of Jesus a place of encounter with God to prepare them for the martyrdom of Luther and the scandal of the Cross (the Crucifixion).

The sudden and shameful death of Jesus on the cross, Moses on Mount Nebo, Abraham's sacrifice of Isaac, the assassination of MLK in Harlem, etc. become not the end of the fight for human liberation but an integral part of God's plan for the salvation of the world.

Goodness does not die hence suffering for a good cause is something noble and praiseworthy.

The mountaintop becomes a place of empowerment for the courage to fight for the emancipation and liberation of human beings from the bondage of sin and ignorance.

During the Lenten season, the church invites us to go to the mountaintop – to leave the comfort of our homes and go to a place of nothingness.

It is in this state of nothingness that Moses and Elijah appeared to Jesus. Moses brought the Ten Commandments but Jesus brings it to completion with the commandment to love God and neighbor. Elijah was the greatest prophet in Israel but Jesus is the fulfillment of all prophecies. Jesus is neither Moses nor Elijah but as the voice from heaven declares, Jesus is the beloved Son of God and all God's children must listen to Him.

As Peter beholds the glory of God, he could not but desire to remain on the mountain but Jesus brings the apostles back to the world because the battle for human liberation is not to be fought on the mountaintop but in the world.

In a short while as bread and wine are transformed into the body and blood of Jesus Christ, you and I will behold the glory of God. We will be transfigured into true and living images of God hence our call to go into the world with love and courage to renew the face of the earth.

As we behold the glory of God, like Peter, James and John, we know and believe that God is faithful to His promise, hence the courage to face the daily problems of life. Death is no longer the ultimate story of our lives for even death on Calvary will be transformed into life and Jesus will be all in all. And that is our story.

Our deliverance from bondage may still be incomplete and imperfect but it has already begun. In the sacraments, we have a sure basis for hope that even here and now God is at work in our lives and in the world transforming us from glory to glory.

The children of God may be tested like Abraham, disappointed like Moses, suffer death like Jesus and MLK, yet, is our hope that the God who began the good work in us will bring it to completion on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Every season of lent becomes not a repetition of past events but a recreation of a salvific event. Lent is no longer a time of suffering but an opportune time when through prayer, fasting and works of charity we allow God to use us to recreate and renew the face of the earth. And the good news is that even while we struggle now "His glory, (truth and beauty) is marching on ..." in us and through us.

We are blessed to be part of a story that will ultimately have a happy ending when Jesus will rise again from the tomb on Easter Sunday. God will take us into the arms of Jesus and perfectly transfigure our wretched and sinful bodies into copies of His own in glory. Death will no longer be the end; eternal life will become our glorious portion.

All Souls Church

Would Like To Hear From You!

We are planning a "Town Hall" Meeting this coming April to hear what your thoughts are regarding our parish community strengths and weaknesses.

We also want to hear your ideas on how we can improve our church grounds and buildings.

The Los Angeles Archdiocese is kicking off a Capital Campaign that will collaborate with the parishes to address whatever improvement plans are proposed.

A Suggestion Box will be placed in the church vestibule leading up to the April meeting where you can drop off your ideas anytime. These proposals will be discussed in the April "Town Hall" meeting.

All Souls Church is a vibrant and diverse community. Let us come together on this remarkable opportunity to make a difference for ourselves and future generations.

LENT: A SEASON OF HOPE

Lent gets its name from a word meaning “springtime,” the time of year when the hours of daylight are lengthening and the sun is bringing back its warmth and light. The Lenten season, indeed all of springtime, is a time of hope: we deepen our relationship with Christ through our Lenten disciplines and look to his crucifixion, death, and resurrection to overcome the darkness that can cause us to struggle and despair. Some days we may not feel the love of God that is always present, but we can rely on hope to move us forward in faith. Exercise hope this Lent and find renewal for the coming Easter season where we celebrate Christ's joyful resurrection.

Did You Know?

Parents and caregivers may be more inclined during summertime to allow children to use mobile phones, especially when school is not in session. Consider the following tips to establish boundaries and help keep children safe when using a mobile phone:

- Contact service provider to block internet access and calls from unapproved phone numbers.
- Designate certain times that cell phone must be turned off (family meals, school hours, after 10 p.m.)
- Insist that parental permission is required for the download of any and all apps.

LA OBEDIENCIA DE ABRAHAM Y JESÚS

Dios puso a prueba a Abraham pidiéndole no un sacrificio ordinario, el cual requería que se quemara parcialmente la carne y se dividiera entre Dios y el pueblo y fuera consumido por los que hacían el sacrificio, sino que le pidió un holocausto, la quema completa del animal expiatorio. Este tipo de sacrificio consagraba la ofrenda solo a Dios. Esto es lo que Dios le pedía a Abraham en su ofrenda de su único hijo, Isaac. Cuando Abraham demostró su obediencia, fue suficiente. El relato de la Sagrada Escritura de hoy predice la finalización de los sacrificios de sangre de la vieja alianza en la nueva alianza: la sangre del Hijo de Dios, la cual se nos ofrece en la cruz y en la Eucaristía. La obediencia de Abraham prefigura la obediencia de Jesús a la promesa de salvación de Dios. La recompensa de la obediencia de Abraham yace en el nacimiento, por medio de Isaac, de muchas naciones. La recompensa de la obediencia de Jesús yace en la salvación de todas las personas por los siglos de los siglos.

¿Sabía Usted?

Creación de límites para el teléfono móvil

Los padres y cuidadores quizás estén más inclinados durante el verano a permitir que los niños usen teléfonos móviles, especialmente cuando la escuela no está en sesión. Considere los siguientes consejos para establecer límites y ayudar a mantener a los niños seguros cuando utilicen un teléfono móvil:

- Contate al proveedor de servicios para bloquear el acceso a Internet y las llamadas desde números de teléfono no aprobados.
- Escoja ciertas horas en que el teléfono celular debe estar apagado (comidas familiares, horas escolares, después de las 10 p.m.)
- Insista en que el permiso de los padres de familia es necesario para la descarga de todas y cada una de las aplicaciones.

Para solicitar una copia del artículo de VIRTUS "What Age is Appropriate for Children to be Provided with a Cell Phone? (¿Qué edad es la apropiada para que los niños puedan recibir un teléfono celular?) escriba a bmelendez@la-archdiocese.org o llame al (213) 637-7508
