CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION BLESSING

Dear Lord,

We ask You to bless us "Your holy people" who have gathered to learn new ways to help stop child sexual abuse. Open our hearts to Your call to be the "eyes, ears and voice of children and young people everywhere." Give us the vision and grace we need to fulfill the special

"commitments" that each of us has made to "Protecting All God's Children" in our homes, churches, schools and communities. Amen.

2nd Sunday of Easter 'B' -Divine Mercy Sunday
(St. Faustina) - Doubt not but Believe

The resurrection of Jesus is both a foundational event and a defining moment in the history of creation. Easter is not a celebration of an event but a celebration of the purpose of creation. The Mesopotamian epics which were the first attempt by humans to explain the purpose of the world, painted a picture of a world in a perpetual state of flux, lacking purpose and meaning. In the resurrection of Jesus, creation is epistemologically and radically transformed from a purposeless to a purposeful end.

The resurrection of Jesus shows that the true meaning of creation cannot be found in creation itself but in God. Creation is not by accident. Things exist in this world for a reason greater than the human eyes can see. And God reveals this meaning in His self-sacrificial love on the cross. It is this love that has become the foundational experience of all God's children.

The first reading gives us an idea of how the early Christians, renewed and reinvigorated by the experience of the resurrection, lived their lives – with one mind and one heart (OHOM). Theirs was a community that shared both their faith and possessions in common.

Their lifestyle is a reminder that PEACE IS POSSIBLE in the world; that there is an abundance of wealth/goodness in the world. Thanks to the resurrection of Jesus. If there is justice in the distribution of earthly resources, all the inequality, imbalance and wars on earth would become a thing of the past. And the key to all these is strong faith in the risen Lord as professed by Thomas in the gospel – 'My Lord and My God.'

The gospel reveals two faces of Thomas

- As a man of doubt, which we are called to abhor and
- As a man of faith, which we are called to embrace

Thomas becomes a microcosm of Christian life in the world. In each of us exists the doubt and the faith that could mar or mend us. It is easy to dismiss Thomas as the "doubting Thomas" but come to think of it, he was indeed a man of profound faith who had no illusion about reality.

Look at it this way; while the apostles were still in the Upper Room for fear of the Jews, lo and behold, Thomas was already in the world going about his business such that he was not with the other apostles when the risen Lord appeared to them where they were hiding in the Upper Room.

Thomas was not ready to sit there to mourn the crucified Jesus. He decided to move on with his life. When he returned, the other disciples told him that Jesus had appeared to them. He could not believe them because if Jesus is alive why are the apostles still hiding in the comfort of the Upper Room?

Thomas doubted not the power of God to raise Jesus from death but the credibility of the testimony of the apostles. People who have witnessed the risen Lord should not be found locked up in the Upper Room. They ought to go out to the world to spread the good news to all.

How about us? Where am I in the story of the resurrection? We say that we are Christians (the Easter people) for whom Jesus died and rose again. What impact does the resurrection make in our lives? Do we live as a priestly, kingly and God's chosen people or do we still lock ourselves up with the secure bias in our minds, still nursing hatred, envy, jealousy etc. in our hearts?

Are we a people who believe in God and yet continue to participate in sorcery, horoscope, soothsaying and other fetish beliefs? How likely is our faith to sound convincing to others or to an unbeliever when we are still locked up in our old ways of life?

Jesus did not hide His wounds from Thomas and Thomas did not shy away from touching the wounds of Jesus. Jesus becomes the wounded healer and as soon as Thomas touched the wound, he believed. As Thomas believed, so did he profess Jesus as Lord and God. Thomas thus challenges us to believe what we say and to say what we believe.

We see the greatness of Thomas not in his doubt but in his willingness to profess his faith in God when the risen Lord appeared to him. In Thomas we see a revelation of the truth which lies hidden in Scripture – that Jesus is God (My Lord and my God). Thomas reminds us today that it is only by living out the conviction of our faith that our belief will become credible.

Our world today is full of doubting Thomases because of our failure to put our faith into action. We often shy away from the wounds resulting from sin. We pretend it's not there. Jesus did not shy away from His wounds. He showed them to Thomas and the other disciples. It is by showing our wounds, by touching and being touched that we are healed. The human heart is healed only by the presence of another human being who understands and shares our pain and sorrow.

Jesus has seen it all and He invites us today just as he invited Thomas to come and touch his wounds. It is from His wounded heart that mercy flows to us in abundance (Divine Mercy Sunday). St. Faustina reminds us of the merciful nature of God, which He is ever ready to share with all who ask for it. We are also challenged to reflect mercy and compassion to all in the world for mercy/compassion is the public face of love and faith. It is God's mercy that sustains us and we need to take advantage of it daily. It is by so doing that we can be healed and set free to live in the freedom of the children of God as the Easter people that we truly are.

Would Like To Hear From You!

We are planning a "Town Hall" Meeting to hear what your thoughts are regarding our parish community strengths and weaknesses. The date will be announced later.

We also want to hear your ideas on how we can improve our church grounds and buildings.

The Los Angeles Archdiocese is kicking off a Capital Campaign that will collaborate with the parishes to address whatever improvement plans are proposed.

A Suggestion Box will be placed in the church vestibule leading up to the meeting where you can drop off your ideas anytime. These proposals will be discussed in the "Town Hall" meeting.

All Souls Church is a vibrant and diverse community. Let us come together on this remarkable opportunity to make a difference for ourselves and future generations.

Did You Know?

Gratitude is one of life's greatest virtues. Teaching children to recognize the many blessings in their lives helps to teach them to have grateful hearts. Modeling gratitude in your home can help your child learn what to value and be grateful for, and learn to avoid the things that are not valuable or worthy of their time and interest. ## PARA QUE CREA

No sucede demasiado a menudo que el autor de uno de los libros de la Biblia se dirija directamente a nosotros para explicarnos por qué está escribiendo lo que está escribiendo. En la lectura del Evangelio de este domingo, que pertenece a la conclusión del Evangelio según san Juan, el autor nos dice que ha elegido escribir estos acontecimientos para que “crean que Jesús es el Mesías, el Hijo de Dios, y para que, creyendo, tengan vida en su Nombre” (20:31).

La carta de san Juan retoma esta idea diciendo que: “todo el que cree que Jesús es el Cristo ha nacido de Dios” (5:1); lo que llamaríamos “nacer de nuevo”. Nuestra lectura de los Hechos de los Apóstoles para este Segundo Domingo de Pascua nos muestra exactamente qué sucede cuando los creyentes nacen de nuevo por medio de la fe.

¿Sabía Usted?

La gratitud es una de las mayores virtudes de la vida. Enseñar a los niños a reconocer las muchas bendiciones en sus vidas ayuda a enseñarles a tener corazones agradecidos. Modelar la gratitud en su hogar puede ayudar a su hijo a aprender qué valorar y por qué estar agradecido, y aprender a evitar las cosas que no son valiosas o dignas de su tiempo e interés.
