Town Hall Meeting/Survey

We are planning a “Town Hall” Meeting this coming June, and we want to hear what your thoughts are regarding our parish community strengths and weaknesses. We also want to hear your ideas on how we can improve our church grounds and buildings.

The Los Angeles Archdiocese is kicking off a Capital Campaign that will collaborate with the parishes to address whatever improvement plans are proposed.

A Suggestion Box is now placed in the church vestibule and will remain there leading up to the June meeting where you can drop off your ideas anytime. These proposals will be discussed in the June “Town Hall” meeting.

All Souls Church is a vibrant and diverse community. Let us come together on this remarkable opportunity to make a difference for ourselves and future generations.

3rd Sunday of Easter, Year "B"
You are Witnesses of these Things

The empty tomb is not an indisputable proof of the resurrection of Jesus. It is rather the transformation we see in the lives of the apostles, Mary Magdalene, Veronica, Salome, etc. that provide a definitive proof that something of great importance must have happened to effect such a radical change we see in their lives. Imagine Peter who even denied any knowledge of Jesus is now strong enough to render a powerful message that made three thousand people to become Christians. Peter is also courageous enough to publicly accuse the Jewish people of being responsible for the death of Jesus without being afraid of the consequences of such a claim.

During the time of Jesus, those who decided to become his disciples did so at the cost of their lives. The disciples were ostracized and betrayed even by family members. Many disciples of Jesus lost their family inheritance for following someone who was regarded by the Jewish religious and civil authorities - Pharisees, Sadducees and Scribes as unpatriotic and a law breaker who neither kept the Sabbath nor observed the temple rules.

Disciples of Jesus would lose their business partners because no one liked to do business with them. Those in civil service faced the possibility of being demoted or not promoted to higher ranks. It was purely a radical choice and a sacrifice to become a disciple of Jesus.

The situation was made worse by the wrong idea of the Messiah that some disciples had nourished. Like other Jews, the disciples had a notion of a conquering messiah who will restore the kingdom of Israel like it was during the time of King David when Israel was the super-power of the world. The idea of a suffering messiah was not only unthinkable but also unacceptable.

As Jesus entered Jerusalem, the disciples thought that Jesus was about to restore the kingdom to Israel. It never crossed their mind that the One who made the deaf to hear, the blind to see, fed the 5000, raised the child of the widow of Nain, raised Lazarus from death, etc. could easily die on the cross alongside two other criminals.

Being disappointed that Jesus accepted to die on the cross, the two disciples decided to return to their native homes to face humiliation and to accept the mockery of people for having followed a "fake" prophet from Nazareth. It was at this lowest ebb of their life that Jesus appeared to them on the road to Emmaus and preached to them.

The words from the mouth of the risen Lord is one with a difference – "Were not our hearts burning within us while He spoke to us on the way and opened the scriptures to us?" (Lk 24:32). When the two disciples on the road to Emmaus experienced the transforming power of the resurrection in the sharing of the word and the breaking of bread (the Eucharist), they made a radical turnaround from Emmaus to Jerusalem to join the believing community to sing the praises of God's marvelous deed.

The resurrection of Jesus evokes a radical transformation. People who believe in the risen Lord do not return to the old Roman ways of doing things. Belief in the resurrection empowered them to establish a new kingdom and a new lifestyle centered on the power of love rather than on the love of power. This is a kingdom where enemies are loved, not destroyed; the poor are cared for, not marginalized; the strong serve the weak and not oppress them; the prodigal children receive the courage to return home to experience true love in a believing community.

Easter is not simply a celebration of a single event that happened in Jerusalem about 2000 years ago but rather a celebration of the purpose of creation. In the resurrection, we see our vocation as a priestly, kingly and God's chosen people. It is our vocation to love.

Any attempt to limit the resurrection of Jesus to a single historical event does a great disservice to the message of the Gospel. It makes the resurrection of Jesus a thing of the past and not an ongoing event. The resurrection of Jesus is a timeless event. It is non temporal. It may be situated in time, yet, it goes beyond time. It is not a single event among other events. It is the center and meaning of history.

Without faith in the resurrection of Jesus, the Christian faith will become a mere phantasm (1 Cor 15:14). Belief in the resurrection of Jesus is a timeless truth of faith which the children of God are called to always behold and cherish. It is not a scientific fact to be studied, examined and critically evaluated but a principle of life which empowers believers to become witnesses in the world.

The resurrection of Jesus becomes the point that defines and gives direction to what we think and how we should live our lives in every age, time and season. To be an Easter person is to resolve to continue the work of Jesus in the world. Unlike the two disciples on the road to Emmaus, we cannot return to a place of sorrow, shame and regret because we believe.

The risen Lord continues to appear today to believers in the breaking of bread (the Eucharist). It is by gathering together to celebrate the Eucharist that we keep faith in the resurrection alive. We are invigorated and renewed to do greater things for God.

The Easter celebration becomes a mandate for Christians to work for the renewal of the face of the earth. In the face of injustice, sickness and despair, we are called to light the candle instead of cursing darkness. We are called to work for the civilization of love, the reign of justice, peace and the integrity of all sentient beings. No stone should be left unturned and no one should say that he or she has nothing to contribute.

This call to become witnesses assumes a radical urgency because the kingdom of God which is the greatest desire of the human heart shall not become a reality until you and I contribute our quota to the building of a just world where the poor and the rich, the old and the young, will find a home to live the peace, joy and happiness of the Easter season.

PRAYER FOR CONFIRMATION CANDIDATES

Lord, You send out Your Spirit to touch the hearts of all people, so that they may believe in You and in Jesus whom You sent. Look kindly on all candidates for Confirmation as they listen to Your voice. Open their hearts to Your Spirit and bring to fulfilment the good work that You have begun in them. As we prepare these children for Confirmation, make each of us an instrument of Your love. Teach us to appreciate what is holy in others, and to be patient with what we do not understand. Deepen our faith in the Gospel and help us to pass it on by our example. We pray that You will continue to guide us and sustain us. Through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Did You Know?

In celebration of National Child Abuse Prevention, the Office of Safeguard the Children is offering the 2018 Prevent Child Abuse Resource Packet. This year's packet includes "Keeping Kids Safe" pinwheel stickers, decorations and children's activities as well as informative articles to help parents and other caring adults learn about how to protect our children and youth. Through this campaign, we hope to provide another opportunity to transform awareness into action as we affirm every child's right for a life filled with hope, health and happiness. For more information, visit: <http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/safeguard/Pages/CAPM.aspx>.

CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION MONTH

"Many victims of child sexual abuse suffer in silence for years, wrestling alone with the agony of their memories and pain. We pray that the Church may always be a place where they can come to share their stories, be received in love and compassion, and be supported on the path to healing."

On April 22nd, during each of the Masses, we will be reciting the Prayer for Healing together, which will be printed in next week's bulletin. Let us unite to pray for those who have been harmed by child abuse.

CREER EN JESUCRISTO

Durante todo el Tiempo Pascual, las tres lecturas del domingo son tomadas del Nuevo Testamento, la parte cristiana de la Sagrada Escritura. Juntas exploran qué significa creer que Jesús es el Cristo, aquél que cumplió las profecías de la Sagrada Escritura judía.

Las selecciones de hoy aluden a nuestra debilidad humana; sin embargo, hacen hincapié en el perdón y la paz que son posibles para quienes tienen fe en "Jesucristo, el Justo" (1 Juan 2:2). En los Hechos de los Apóstoles, Pedro nos dice a todos "arrepíéntanse y conviértanse, para que se borren sus pecados" (Hechos 3:19). La primera carta del apóstol san Juan dice que Jesucristo es "victima de expiación por nuestros pecados" (1 Juan 2:2). Por último, en el Evangelio, Jesús saluda a los discípulos diciéndoles: "Paz" y los insta a predicar "la necesidad de volverse a Dios y el perdón de los pecados" (Lucas 24:47).

¿Sabía Usted?

En celebración de la Prevención Nacional del Abuso de Niños, la Oficina de Protección de los Niños está ofreciendo el Paquete 2018 de Recursos para Prevención del Abuso de Niños. El paquete de este año de "Keeping Kids Safe" ("Manteniendo a los Niños Seguros") incluye la calcomanía en forma de molino decoraciones y actividades para niños y también artículos informativos para ayudar a los padres y guardianes aprender sobre cómo proteger a nuestros niños y jóvenes. A través de esta campaña, nosotros esperamos proveer otra oportunidad para transformar la conciencia en acción al afirmar el derecho de cada niño a una vida llena de esperanza, salud y felicidad. Para más información, visite:

NECESITAMOS DE SU OPINION

Estamos planeando una reunión de "Ayuntamiento" en junio, queremos escuchar sus opiniones sobre las fortalezas y debilidades de nuestra comunidad parroquial.

También queremos escuchar sus ideas sobre cómo podemos mejorar los terrenos y edificios de nuestra iglesia.

La Arquidiócesis de Los Ángeles está iniciando una Campaña de Capital que colaborará con las parroquias para abordar cualquier plan de mejora que se proponga.

Ahora se coloca un buzón de sugerencias en el vestíbulo de la iglesia y permanecerá allí hasta la reunión de junio, en la que puede dejar sus ideas en cualquier momento. Estas propuestas serán discutidas en la reunión del "Ayuntamiento" de junio.

All Souls Church es una comunidad vibrante y diversa. Vamos a unirnos en esta notable oportunidad de hacer una diferencia para nosotros y las generaciones futuras.
