EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS

WATER

Turn off water service to the house. It is usually located in the front of the house near the hose bib. If there is damage to the piping in this area, or you are unable to locate the shut off, turn off at the water meter. 2. Locate the main shut-off valve outside the house. It is usually in a concrete box at ground level next to the sidewalk with cover that says "Water Meter." You will need a screw driver/knife/stick to open the metal cover. 3. Turn the valve clockwise to turn "OFF" Replace the cover. 4. Turn each valve counterclockwise (to the left) to restore water flow. 5. For any concerns regarding your water, contact your local water company.

Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Jesus Christ

The feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ was introduced to the universal church in 1264. It is the fruit of the vision by an Augustinian nun – Juliana of Liege, who in her vision saw a perfectly shining moon but with a hollow dark spot on it. In her effort to find out the reason for the dark spot on the moon, it was divinely revealed to her in prayers that it was due to the absence of a feast in honor of the Eucharist in the church. Hence Pope Urban IV on September 8, 1264 introduced this feast to the universal church to be celebrated yearly on the second Sunday after Pentecost or better known as the Sunday after Trinity Sunday.

In spite of the beautiful history of this feast, many continue to ask if we are the living body of Christ on earth, do we really need a feast in honor of the Eucharist. We will not hesitate to say YES and this is due to the central nature of the Eucharist in the church. It is the Eucharist that forms the church and it was at the breaking of bread that the risen Lord revealed himself to the community of believers, strengthening and commissioning them to embark on the mission of evangelization ad gentes (Lk 24:30-35).

St. Paul in 1 Cor 12:27 reminds all the baptized that we are the body of Christ and each of us is a part of it. Whenever we gather in prayer, the body of Christ becomes visible and this divine presence is completed by the presence of Jesus in the Eucharist – “For where two or three gather in my name, there I am with them” (Matt 18:20). And whenever we receive the body and blood of Jesus Christ, we receive who we are and who we are called to become.

The word Eucharist comes from the Greek word ‘eucharistia’ which means ‘thanksgiving.’ Gathering to celebrate the Eucharist affords believers the opportunity to give a collective thanks to God for Christ’s redemptive work and the Holy Spirit’s abiding presence with us.

In the Gospel of John 6 on the bread of life and Matthew 28:20 on Jesus promise to be with us till the end of time, believers see in the Eucharist a visible sign and effective means of Jesus presence in our midst at all times. Jesus says anyone who eats my flesh and drinks my blood abide in me and I in him/her (Jn 6:56).

In Jn 10:10 Jesus said that He has come that we may have life and have it in abundance. The life that Jesus brings is eternal life, which is a divine gift that only God can give. Hence, Jesus did not hesitate to tell us “truly I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life in you. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood have eternal life and I will raise them up on the last day (Jn 6:53-54).”

Some of the Jews who first heard this message doubted it and distanced themselves from Jesus. How about you and I today? What is our attitude towards the Eucharist? Is it that of avoidance or one of laissez faire attitude? St. Paul warns us in 1 Cor 11:29-30 that “All who eat and drink the body and blood of Christ in an unworthy manner … eat and drink judgment against themselves. For this reason many of you are weak and ill, some have died.”

The Eucharist is the food that unites the world. It is the food that reveals the unconditional love of God. We may sometimes construe it as a sole property of an institution; it is certainly the food of God’s children. Institutional requirements may seem to hijack it yet believers do know that when God fed the Israelites with manna in the desert and when Jesus fed the multitude, God did not give them conditions. Neither the apostles had first to confess their sins nor did they have to produce their marriage certificates in order to partake of the Eucharist. People who believe and desire the Lord feed on the Eucharist, reminding them that even now God is still with us.

The Eucharist ought to unite and not divide the children of God. In the true sense of it, no one is worthy to receive the Eucharist. Only God’s call and His love make us worthy to receive Him in the Holy Eucharist. His mercy and love heals and purifies us, inviting us to “take and eat.” The Eucharist is the food of those who love the Lord and desire to grow in His love. Partaking of the Eucharist becomes a profound expression of faith through which we manifest our resolve to grow in holiness and to become Jesus Christ made visible to others in the world.

The Eucharist as the new Passover meal was established in a covenant relationship between God and the Church – the new Israel (the new people of God). By celebrating the Eucharist, we keep God’s covenant with His people alive. We celebrate who we are and who we are called to become - the priestly people, the kingly people and God’s chosen people who reveal God’s love in the world. This covenant which was sealed with the blood of Jesus Christ on the cross is re-enacted and made present in the celebration of the Eucharist. It is an eternal and everlasting covenant, irreversible and pleasing to God.

The Eucharist, thus, becomes the apex and summit of Christian life. It is the highest and the best sacrifice of the church. During the celebration of the Eucharist time ceases to exist, eternity begins and all boundaries are broken. Only love reigns. By re-enacting this everlasting covenant we enter into a closer and intimate bond with God. We are not simply God’s people; we are in fact God’s beloved sons and daughters. We are God’s family.

As long as we re-tell the story of the Eucharist, its redemptive power remains effective in us. We celebrate what we become and become what we celebrate. It humbles me knowing that God has loved us this much. The right attitude of God’s children towards the Eucharist, therefore, should be one of deep reverence and love. And those who eat the body and drink the blood of Jesus Christ should become Jesus made visible to others in the world.

Did You Know?

Developing a family fire plan for evacuation can save lives. Children should be a part of the planning, and should know which exits to use to get out of the house and where to meet once they are safely outside. Smoke detectors and fire extinguishers should also be part of your plan; children should know what to do if the smoke detector goes off, and older children should be taught how to use a fire extinguisher. For a copy of the complete VIRTUS® article "A Reminder about Fire Safety in the Home," visit <http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx>.

Let Us Celebrate Our Pastor's Ministry

PRECIOSA SANGRE

En esta solemnidad centramos nuestra atención al Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo. Escuchamos el relato de renovación de la antigua alianza, la cual Moisés selló rociando la sangre de animales en el altar de sacrificio, así como en las personas. Jesús, cuya sangre es la sangre de la nueva alianza, derramó esa preciosa sangre en la cruz para salvarnos del pecado y prometernos la vida eterna. La sangre es la fuente de vida que fluye por nuestro cuerpo. La preciosa sangre de Cristo es la fuente de vida de nuestro espíritu. Que hoy, como el salmista, ofrezcamos un sacrificio de agradecimiento al Señor, cuyo cuerpo y sangre nos fortalecen para llevar la Buena Nueva a todos los que conocemos.

¿Sabía Usted?

Desarrollar un plan de evacuación familiar en caso de incendio puede salvar vidas. Los niños deben ser parte de la planeación y deben saber qué salidas usar y dónde reunirse. Los detectores de humo y los extintores de incendios también deben formar parte de su plan, y sus hijos deben saber qué hacer si el detector de humo se activa y los niños mayores deben saber cómo usar un extintor de incendios. Para obtener una copia del artículo completo de VIRTUS® “A Reminder about Fire Safety in the Home” (Recordatorio sobre la seguridad contra incendios en el hogar), visite <http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx>.
