3rd Sunday of Lent – “Destroy this Temple … In 3 days I will rebuild it”

The Sunday Gospel readings in lent gradually expose the mystery of our salvation to the faithful. On the first Sunday, we read the story of the temptation of the Lord. On the second Sunday, we read about the transfiguration of the Lord. Today, it is about the cleansing of the temple. Now, we begin to see a gradual transition from the DESERT to the MOUNTAIN and back to the TEMPLE (House) of God.

Today is one of those days when most people would not like to go to church – the cleansing of the Temple. Ours is a generation that shies away from confronting or talking about the big socio-moral and religious issues of our time. It is much easier to talk about Russia, ISIS, Earth warming, etc. than to talk about abortion, divorce, the questionable and heartbreaking killings of/by our law enforcement agents, etc. This is not to say that the problems presented by ISIS, etc. are not serious moral issues, but to talk about some while ignoring others speaks about the mindset and the moral consciousness of the time in which we live.

Today we see Jesus confronting head on the moral and spiritual crisis of his time. Though unpopular it may look in human eyes that the perfect Jesus – the merciful Jesus would hurt some people's feelings; the moral teacher could show some signs of anger; Jesus did not hesitate to do the right thing at the right time because it is for the glory of God and the liberation of the people (justice).

To better understand and appreciate why Jesus did what he did in the temple today, we need to have some background knowledge of Jewish life, culture and religious practices.

The Jewish people had a very good understanding of the law which is different from the present day approach to the law. We often make laws to check abuses or to protect special interests. This was not the case with the Jewish people. The Jews saw the law given through Moses as a concrete expression of God's loving relationship with His people.

This happens in human relationship. As we begin to love some people, we begin to make sincere effort to know them better. We begin to know their do's and don'ts so that we could do what they like and avoid what they detest. “If you love me, keep my commandments” Jn 14:15.

In the Ten Commandments, the Jews saw what they ought to do to please God – to remain the friends of God, hence they prided themselves as a law abiding nation (a people who know and do the will of God).

The first three of the commandments reveal what people should do to remain the friends of God while the last seven commandments reveal what people should do to live in a loving relationship with one another, which ultimately aims at remaining in a loving relationship with God.

The true essence of the law is good but this essence was lost when the Jews began to live by the letters of the law. In their honest desire to protect the Ten Commandments, the Rabbis began to institute another 613 laws. In the end it became extremely difficult for an ordinary person to observe all the commandments (i.e. to remain a friend of God).

Being good or bad, holy or unholy was determined by one's observance or neglect of the law. This world view became problematic as those people who considered themselves law abiding began to look down on those whom they regarded as not law abiding (gentiles/sinners).

This disregard for gentiles extended to temple observances. The temple was both a place of prayer and business. It was customary to exchange local currencies into the temple shekel in order to buy sheep for the sacrifice. The Temple, indeed, was divided into 4 sections – the Holy of Holies, the Court of the Jews, the Court of the Gentiles and the Court of Women. As business boomed, the court of the Gentiles was converted to a place for money changers and sheep sellers, thereby making it impossible for gentiles to worship God in the temple.

Jesus accused the Jewish authorities of making a house of prayer to look like a market place. Jesus decided to drive out the money changers and sheep sellers so that the temple of God would be restored as a house of prayer for all – Jews and gentiles alike.

Jesus, by cleansing the temple reminds the Jews that it is not good enough to know that the temple is a house of prayer for all and yet due to economic reasons some people are excluded from worshipping in it.

By cleansing the temple, Jesus fights against the religion-based structural injustice that excludes some people from the commonwealth of Israel. It is ungodly to use religion to oppress and divide the family of God - My temple shall be a house of prayer for all.

Is this not similar to our attitude towards the moral issues of our time? We know the implications of our actions, yet, we live like the problems do not really exist?

Is Jesus not likely to cleanse our churches today like He did more than two thousand years ago? (I remember a mad man who threatened some worshippers during Mass. Many ran away. Few remained. The mad man said... “Fr. these are the true believers ... continue with the mass.”)

More than the temple is the human body, which is the dwelling place of God. St. Paul says “Don't you know that your bodies is the dwelling place of the Holy Spirit who is in you?” (1 Cor 6:19). Like the Jews, we abuse the temple of God whenever we degrade our body or use others for commercial purposes or political reasons while overlooking the moral issues of our time. As we work hard to earn a living, our body and the body of others must be revered as the dwelling place of God in the Holy Spirit.

Jesus comes to reclaim the human body as the dwelling place of God. In this first announcement of His death on the cross, Jesus says “destroy this temple” This phrase, at first sight, may sound violent; yet, in it we see a radical display of the mercy and love of God for the world.

The human being remains the dwelling place of God, hence the mandate to stand for peace and justice while fighting against unjust structures that dehumanize the person for whom Jesus gave His life on the cross.

Our God is not a sadist. God does not derive any pleasure in the death of Jesus on the cross. However, in the death of Jesus we see the transformational power of suffering. Think about it this way – a mother who gives her life for the child in her womb does not in any way like to die. She gives her life to show that there is nothing she would not do to save the life of her baby.

By dying on the cross, God in Jesus gives us all He's got. Suffering with Jesus during lent is by no means an attempt to renew the wounds of Jesus but a sign of appreciation for the salvation Jesus won for us by dying on the cross.

Would Like To Hear From You!

We are planning a “Town Hall” Meeting this coming April to hear what your thoughts are regarding our parish community strengths and weaknesses.

We also want to hear your ideas on how we can improve our church grounds and buildings.

The Los Angeles Archdiocese is kicking off a Capital Campaign that will collaborate with the parishes to address whatever improvement plans are proposed.

A Suggestion Box will be placed in the church vestibule leading up to the April meeting where you can drop off your ideas anytime. These proposals will be discussed in the April “Town Hall” meeting.

All Souls Church is a vibrant and diverse community. Let us come together on this remarkable opportunity to make a difference for ourselves and future generations.

Did You Know?

Neglect is the most common form of child abuse. It is the failure to meet a child's basic needs, including housing, food, clothing, education, safety and access to health care. Neglect is most often characterized by acts of omission that aren't easy to see. The signs of neglect are wide and varied, and may include: failure to develop and grow appropriately, or malnourishment, among infants; wearing inadequate clothing for the weather; and children who seem to be wholly responsible for the welfare of their siblings. If you know that any type of abuse is occurring, or if a child discloses to you, it is important to communicate these concerns to the appropriate authorities. Call your local law enforcement or child protective services department to report suspected abuse of any kind. For a copy of the VIRTUS® article "The Oft-Forgotten Type of Abuse: Neglect," visit: <http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx> or call (213) 637-7508.

Week Before the Collection

Next week, our parish will take up The Catholic Relief Services Collection (CRSC). Funds from this collection help provide food to the hungry, support to displaced refugees, and bring Christ's love and mercy to all people here at home and abroad. Next week, please give generously to the CRSC, and help Jesus in disguise. Learn more about the collection at www.usccb.org/catholic-relief.

PRAY THE ACT OF HOPE

O my God, relying on your infinite mercy and promises, I hope to obtain pardon of my sins, the help of your grace, and life everlasting, through the merits of Jesus Christ, my Lord and Redeemer.
Amen.

SANTIFICA EL SÁBADO

No hay mejor forma de profundizar nuestras devociones de Cuaresma que repasar los Diez Mandamientos. Los primeros tres, los cuales se refieren a una buena relación con Dios, son más extensos. Quizás el que más nos cueste a nosotros, que siempre estamos tan ocupados, es santificar las fiestas refiriéndose al día del Señor.

Si tomáramos este mandamiento literalmente, no cambiaríamos a los bebés, los platos quedarían en la mesa y quizás ni siquiera serviríamos las comidas. Los enfermos no serían atendidos y no se haría nada que estuviera relacionado con el trabajo físico. ¿Se considera trabajo al trabajo mental? ¿Y qué hay de cambiarle el pañal al bebé (¡pobrecito!)?

Debemos depender de Dios para discernir de qué manera debemos respetar y santificar el día del Señor en nuestras vidas. La clave de este mandamiento es que Dios nos ha dado un gran regalo: un día entero por semana en el cual somos libres para descansar, rendir culto a Dios, cantar, celebrar, amar y alegrarnos. Como proclama el Salmo 19 (18): “Los mandatos del Señor son rectos y alegran el corazón” (19 [18]:8). Nuestro descanso del domingo es un gran regalo que debemos recibir de Dios con alegría, no poniendo peros. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

¿Sabía Usted?

La negligencia es la forma más común de abuso infantil. Es la incapacidad de satisfacer las necesidades básicas de un niño, incluyendo la vivienda, la alimentación, la ropa, la vestimenta, la educación, la seguridad y el acceso al cuidado de salud. La negligencia se caracteriza más a menudo por actos de omisión que no son fáciles de “ver”, no es como el abuso físico, donde normalmente hay evidencia de marcas físicas. Los signos de negligencia son amplios y variados, y pueden incluir: falta de desarrollo y crecimiento físico adecuado o malnutrición entre los lactantes; vestir a los niños con ropa inadecuada para el clima; y niños que parecen estar a cargo del cuidado de sus hermanos. Si usted sabe que está ocurriendo cualquier tipo de abuso, o si un niño se lo revela a usted, es importante comunicar sus preocupaciones a las autoridades correspondientes. Llame al departamento de policía o al departamento de protección de menores para reportar sospechas de abuso de cualquier tipo. El Vía Crucis o Camino a la Cruz es una de las más antiguas devociones practicadas por los Católicos en todo el mundo. Consiste en acompañar a Jesús en su Pasión y Muerte, en sus horas finales, repasando 14 momentos (las 14 Estaciones del Vía Crucis) desde que fue condenado a muerte hasta su sepultura
